Presentación

Programa Básico

Objetivos

1. General objectives

The aim is to provide an integrated course for those students who have already reached an pre-intermediate level and should be working towards the standard of English required for taking examinations at intermediate / upper-intermediate level.

The course is designed (a) to expand vocabulary and idiomatic expressions beyond what is required for survival English, and (b) to increase the students' reading ability and listening and writing skills through the analysis of the structure, lexis, register and style of a wide variety of texts.

2. Specific objectives

Students at this level of command of the English language should:

§ Understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc.

§ Deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where English is spoken.

§ Produce simple connected texts on topics which are familiar or of personal interest.

§ Describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions, and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.

Programa de Teoría

The contents of this course comprise the following language activities:

1. Grammar / language focus.

2. Receptive mode (oral and/or written):

a. Listening activities.

b. Reading activities.

3. Productive mode (oral and/or written):

a. Speaking activities.

b. Writing activities.

Programa Práctico

Evaluación

Students will be assessed on an individual exam in June, although work done during the year will also be taken into account. The final exam will consist of two papers:

1. Grammar / language focus.

2. Receptive and productive skills.
