5. Métodos docentes y principios metodológicos desde el 13.03.2020

~~In synthesis, the course will combine short lectures, screenings and analysis of sport films scenes, group discussions, debates based on papers previously read, some brief performances and the design of feasible teaching activities.~~

~~Students are expected to approach this course with an open mind and a willingness to participate and cooperate with their course-mates.~~

In synthesis, resources (movies, articles, urls, etc.) and activities will be/are being given by email and other systems.

Chatting, debates and lectures are available on demand through Skype, Webex, Jitsi...

Activities will be adapted so students can accomplish them on their own.

Given the circumstances students and teacher are expected to work and become a bit more resilient.
