5. Methodology from 13.03.2020

- From 13th of March, the methodology of teaching will be developed using online sessions via Skype or Hangout (individual tutorship) and Webex (group session). The online practices will be done using the virtual campus (moodle) where the students can find readings, links, and the platform to discuss some parts of the contents. By the using the forums and chat discussions the group will reflect about the action-research as strategy to improve the teaching in this period of quarantine. The contents will be presented using PPT and PDF documents.
